

Youth

The power of YOUth can help build a better Los Angeles. Thousands of young people in L.A. live in unsafe, overcrowded places. Through the youth initiatives of Habitat for Humanity of Greater Los Angeles (Habitat LA), volunteers ages 5-25 can help give these families and individuals a decent, sustainable and affordable place to call home.

Get Involved

- Learn - Invite a Habitat LA representative to speak at your school about Habitat and the need for affordable housing
- Lead - Become a leader in Youth United today and lend your voice to move youth into action.

Create a Campus Chapter

Make your school an official partner of Habitat for Humanity. Visit www.habitat.org to apply!

Advocate

Become a friend of Habitat LA and help build awareness about our mission and goal to eliminate substandard housing throughout greater Los Angeles.

Fundraise

Did you know it takes 35,000 nails to build a Habitat house? You can help raise money to buy those nails and be part of building hope, lives and communities throughout Los Angeles.

Volunteer

If you are 16 years or older, come swing a hammer. 14 years or older, we need your smiling face in our ReStores to stock, clean and greet customers. If you are under 14, ask us how you can help! No experience is required, just a willing heart!

“Seeing others having fun while volunteering motivates me to work harder as a Habitat volunteer. Volunteering loses its meaning when you stop enjoying yourself, and seeing Habitat LA volunteers continue to work year after year, consistently reminds me why I work with this organization.”

-Jenny Sim, former President of Habitat LA Youth United
