

ABOUT HOLLYWOOD FOR HABITAT FOR HUMANITY

Hollywood for Habitat for Humanity (HFHFH) is an entertainment industry partnership with Habitat for Humanity of Greater Los Angeles (HFHGLA) that launched in 2000 with a 20 house "blitz build". HFHFH was founded by Screenwriter/Director Randall Wallace (Braveheart, We Were Soldiers) to encourage the entertainment industry to support Habitat for Humanity's goal of eliminating substandard housing worldwide. HFHFH works with talent and industry leaders who support the organization through donations, volunteer hours and advocacy. Thousands of volunteers from the entertainment industry have helped build homes in the United States and around the world.

Founding Advisory Board Members:

Melanie Cook (Partner, Ziffren Brittenham LLP), Gale Anne Hurd (CEO, Valhalla Motion Pictures), Erin Rank (President & CEO, HFHGLA), Tom Shadyac (Producer, Shady Acres Entertainment), Roberta Turner (Partner, Turner & Adams), and David Wirtschafter (William Morris Endeavor Entertainment).

Founded in 1976, Habitat for Humanity has built over 300,000 homes, housing more than 1.5 million people worldwide, in over 90 countries. With a truly global reach, Habitat for Humanity consists of over 1500 local affiliates in the U.S. and 550 affiliates internationally. Since our founding in 1990, HFHGLA has built or renovated over 600 homes locally and internationally, with plans to complete an additional 250 homes in Los Angeles over the next few years, through our Building a Greater Los Angeles campaign. We have also built homes in countries including Armenia, India, Mexico, Nepal, Northern Ireland, South Africa, Thailand and more, and we provide ongoing support to tsunami affected communities in Asia, as well as to the Gulf Coast region here in the U.S.
